

Skit #1—setting up camp— Chris, Alyssa, Daniel, Seth and Erin

Chris will introduce the 4 survivors (Seth, Alyssa, Dan and Erin). Then he will tell them that the first thing that they need to do is make some kind of shelter before they do anything else so that they have a place to sleep.

Alyssa: Hey everyone I have the best idea about what to make my cozy little house out of beautiful flowers. Look at how great they are. (hold up flowers) I only spent about an hour picking all of these. I know that I am going to have the most beautiful house in the whole park.
(lay the flowers down like you are going to make a bed)
Well that is a good start but I think that I might need some more flowers to finish up...wait what's that sound...
(Audience makes a buzzing sound)
Oh no bees...bees everywhere they are coming after me. I destroyed their food and now they are going to make me pay...(run off stage)

Daniel: Silly girl, everyone know that you can't make a house out of flowers...sticks are the way to go. Lets see you have to get some stick first, good sturdy ones work the best so that everything doesn't fall over. (fiddle with sticks and make a tee-pee with the sticks)
See, there, now that is what I call a high quality dwelling...

Erin: (walk over to Daniel) wow that is a cool squirrel hut...

Daniel: It isn't for squirrels. It is for be duhhhhhh. You'll see it is going to be the best shelter out of anyone.

Alyssa: (run through the site still yelling that the bees are after you and kick the sticks out of the way)

Daniel: oh man....now I have to start over (leave crying)

Seth: (come in carrying a big rock. Pause look at youth...pretend to drop the rock on your toe. Hop around in pain for a bit) Well all done. I am ready to take a nap now
(at first put your head on the rock like a pillow, then move so you are curled up beside it, finally put it on your chest like a blanket and fall asleep. Stay like that through the rest of the skit)

Erin: (walk up reading your Bible and hang out like you don't have a care in the world. Work on your volleyball form. Look at Seth sleeping on the ground like he is weird.)

Alyssa and Daniel: Ask Erin about her shelter, why she hasn't worked on hers and tell her how cold and wet she is going to be sleeping outside

Erin: I'm all done. Yeah I just through my stuff on one of those tents over there and I am all set. My tent even has a sky light and a lemonade machine in it...which tent did you guys pick out?

Alyssa and Daniel: (run off set yelling about the tent that you want to "call" as yours)

Skit #2—showering with water balloons—

The survivors come on the stage and begin talking about the smell of the others. Everyone starts talking about how someone else is stinkier than they are. If you want to fart for real this would be the time to do it...Alyssa. After being out in the wilderness for 325 minutes you get to be mighty ripe.

Erin: Guys I have an idea. Do you see those very rare and endangers water balloons grazing in the shade over there?

Everyone else: Yeah

Erin: Well if we can sneak up on them and capture them we could use them to shower with. Wouldn't that be cool?

Alyssa: That would be so cool...maybe one of them is filled with flowers, or even shampoo that smells like flowers...oh no I hope they aren't filled with bees.

Seth: I smell fine

Daniel: I hope Seth's is filled with pudding

Erin: Okay well let's see if we can get some

(Everyone go sneak up on a balloon and catch it. Then each person decide who they will pop the balloon over so that the other will be "clean." Once finished "showering" everyone sniff the others and say how nice they smell)

Skit #3--fishing in the water

Daniel: Dinner was so good but I am still a little hungry. I wish there was somewhere I could go to get a little bit of food. Oh wait I hear something over there (point). Hey Seth come over here.

Seth: Sure thing buddy boy

Daniel: I knew it. I knew I hear a baby pool filled with wonderful treats.

Erin: Yummo...those treats look really tasty.

Alyssa: (rush over to the pool and watch everyone for now)

Daniel: Hey look, there are even sticks that have been made into fishing poles for the convenience of this skit.

Seth: who would have thought?

Erin: Oh cool I hope I catch something sweet. (dip a line into the water and pull out a bag, open it and take a bite)

Daniel: I am going to try now. (dip in another pole, pull up a bag, open it and take a bite)

Seth: My turn, My turn. (put a pole in the water by holding the string and throwing the stick..)

Daniel: No Seth like this (show him how to do it the right way)
Look I think you got a bite (hand him the pole)

Seth: I got something (open it and take a bite)
(look at Alyssa while you are chewing and ask) Why do you look so sad

Alyssa: I want to eat something so bad but I am a vegetarian...I don't know what to do

Seth: just try and if you don't like it throw it back.

Alyssa: (Go fish and catch something, open it) Oh no it's fish...Swedish fish...awesome (pig out)
(look to the youth) you all should really try this

Skit #4—teamwork—firestarting

Erin, then Daniel, then Alyssa and finally Seth come on to the stage and begin rubbing things together one by one. This could be shoe laces, fingers, sticks, rocks, whatever you would like. Keep rubbing while you talk.

Seth: Man this is really hard work.

Alyssa: yeah I am never going to be able to get my fire started at this rate.

Daniel: I think I saw a spark from mine like 5 minutes ago.

Erin: I smell something...

Alyssa: Sorry that was my fault

Daniel: We are never going to get our fires going at this rate.

Erin: How about we work together to get one big fire going?

Seth: that sounds great.

Erin: I will go get some leaves and pine needles to get it going.

Alyssa: I will get bigger sticks to keep it going

Daniel: Uhhhh, I can stand here and block the wind.

Erin: Great that is the most helpful you have been all day

Seth: Oh okay cool, well you can use my lighter to...you know light stuff.

Everyone: You have a lighter

Seth: Well of course, but it looked like everyone was having such a good time rubbing things together that I thought I would too.

Erin: (look to youth) Maybe you all can work together better than we can
